

Doug Bouey,

Accomplished author and facilitator of Fixing Fractures

Douglas Bouey is a mentor to presidents and a facilitator for groups who aspire to real unity and drive. He was a group leader for TEC/ Vistage for 32 years reaching their pinnacle award in 2007. His mentees and group members have gone on to achieve leadership strength.

Doug now focuses on writing. His book Fixing Fractures; Restoring Shattered Relationships in Business and Life has received wide notice as a resource for those facing troubling and costly breaches of trust. It is also a video course on Thinkific. <https://douglas-site-d170.thinkific.com/>

He writes on Substack, the blog Catch : Release about travel among other subjects - https://douglasbouey.substack.com?utm_source=navbar&utm_medium=web. There he will shortly begin serializing a new book on later life called Let Go of the Rope. He hopes to complete another video course; the Coach's Backpack, a compendium of "go to" concepts for coaches to employ as they face, with their clients, the complexity of their challenges.

He lives with his artist wife Elaine on Hornby Island on the BC coast, in San Miguel de Allende, Mexico while preserving his base in Calgary, Alberta, Canada. He has two grown children - both engineers.
