Teleios Announces Addition of Hospice of Davidson County

Hendersonville, NC January 24, 2025: Teleios Collaborative Network (TCN)

announced the addition of Hospice of Davidson County as an associate member. Established in 1985, Hospice of Davidson County is an accredited end-of-life healthcare provider in North Carolina serving residents with hospice care in the greater Davidson County community, from Lexington, Thomasville, Welcome, Midway, Arcadia, and other surrounding counties, including Davie, Forsyth, Guilford, Randolph, and Rowan.

Laura Owen, Hospice of Davidson County CEO, said of joining, “Hospice of Davidson County values the support and resources offered by TCN. As an associate member, we have strategically prioritized areas of our organization that benefit most from TCN’s subject matter specialists. Chris Comeaux and his colleagues have a rich history of advancing the hospice and serious illness management industries. Their dedication to equipping small- to mid-sized nonprofit providers ensures communities such as ours receive the highest quality care.”

“We are excited to have Hospice of Davidson County join the TCN Network,” said Chris Comeaux, Teleios Collaborative Network President/CEO. “Hospice of Davidson County has been serving its community with quality, compassionate care for forty years. We look forward to working together to ensure they are here for their community despite the challenges that hospices face in the future.”

Teleios Collaborative Network is a nonprofit organization that has created a clinically integrated network that shares expert leadership, industry best practices, and resources with its member organizations. The goal of TCN’s collaboration is to harness the best of each hospice and enable the network to care for the patients and families in each community served. There are over 3,500 hospice patients and over 4,300 palliative patients in its network. TCN was founded in 2017 by Four Seasons and Carolina Caring and co-founded by AMOREM and Mountain Valley organizations. TCN is currently comprised of sixteen member organizations across ten states.
