

Dr. William Faber

William Faber is a senior physician leader and medical business consultant with over 30 years of executive management experience in healthcare. He earned his MD at Loma Linda University, where he also received his Master of Arts degree in Medical Ethics. He earned his Master of Health Care Management degree from the Harvard School of Public Health. He is a fellow of the American Academy of Family Physicians and practiced primary care medicine for 27 years in a variety of settings. His special areas of interest are population health management and the establishment and optimization of Clinically Integrated Networks. His lifelong passion is to produce better clinical outcomes while decreasing the waste and inefficiency that contribute to the high cost of healthcare. He makes his home in Carmel, California.